

Red Rock & Mt. Charleston

You tour magnificent Red Rock Canyon on a 13 mile scenic drive that encircles this national treasure just minutes from fast paced Las Vegas. This area was once part of the Old Spanish Trail and today is one of the most visited areas of Southern Nevada. There is more to see at the Visitor Center where you see exhibits and hear the story of this area.

Next you will be transported to the majestic Mount Charleston in the Spring Mountain Range of Toiyabe National Forest. Here you will live the breathtaking beauty of this green paradise just minutes out of Las Vegas. The contrast of this mountain resort area full of greenery and forest to the red rocks of the lower valley will leave you in bewilderment as to how both can exist within minutes of each other. You will venture through this alpine beauty to the Mount Charleston Lodge among Ponderosa Pines where you will enjoy lunch with a sensational view of this paradise in the desert.
